

Diana & Mina's European Adventure

DESMOND'S AMSTERDAM RECOMMENDATIONS

Updated: September 2, 2026

Food & Drink

RESTAURANT

Eggs Benaddicted Prinsengracht

Near where you're staying.

My favorite restaurant in Amsterdam.

Open in Maps

RESTAURANT

Blushing

Near where you're staying.

Also really good, and close to where you're staying.

Open in Maps

DRINKS

Cafe De Baron

Near De Pijp

The fellas and I stopped here for good beers and vibes after shopping and wandering.

Open in Maps

COFFEESHOP

Coffeeshop Roxy

Just up the street from Cafe De Baron. I stopped here after beers :). Bring cash.

Open in Maps

Things to Do

PARK / WALK

Weteringsplantsoen

An incredible park that you have to see. It's an easy walk and close by. I recommend walking through here on your way to the Bloemenmarkt.

Open in Maps

FLOWER MARKET

Bloemenmarkt

Pair this with the walk through Weteringsplantsoen.

Open in Maps

BOAT TOUR

Flagship Amsterdam

The Boat tour company, Flagship Amsterdam, was incredible - the tour is a must. It was a great way to explore the city, Drinks were included and I recommend doing this early on in the trip.

Totally worth it. I recommend doing this as early as possible in your trip.

WHAT WE PAID

$122.58 total for three people

Prices may change.

Book Canal Cruise

MUSEUM

Rijksmuseum

A must-see, with good food and sweet treats.

I remember just being able to grab a seat and scan the QR code at the table for the menu.

Open in Maps

Treats & Gifts

TREATS & GIFTS

Hans Egstorf

Freshly made stroopwafels - a great place for gifts.

A fun place to shop and people-watch.

Open in Maps
